
Help Us Select Our COPD Community Champion 2011!

The COPD Foundation's Second Annual Awards and Recognition Benefit will be held on December 8th, 2011 in New York City. We will present an award to a member of our community who has gone above and beyond in their dedication to the cause.

This is where you come in. We need your help selecting our beneficiary. The COPD Foundation will pick a winner based on your votes to award our 2011 Community Champion.

Martin M. Shenkman and Patti S. Klein

NOMINEES

Driving cross-country in an Airstream RV with his wife Patti S. Klein and dog Elvis by his side, Martin Shenkman teaches financial professionals and the general public how to manage finances while coping with chronic disease. Shenkman first became interested in this topic when Klein was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis in 1996. His upcoming projects involving COPD include articles in Estate Planning Magazine and a book titled, Estate and Financial Planning for Those Living with COPD to be published by Demos Health. In October, Shenkman hosted a webinar titled, “Estate and Financial Planning for People Living with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD).”
